

The Effects of Domestic Violence on Children

About the workshop

This one-day workshop is suitable for professionals and individuals who wish to develop an understanding of the impact that domestic violence can have on children. The workshop will examine the impact that domestic violence can have on parenting skills and how this can impact on a child's development.

The workshop will be delivered in an experiential style and will give the participant an in depth understanding of Domestic Violence as it relates to Children.

Delivery method

The workshop is delivered by highly trained Children's Support Workers with a high-level of experience in working with children who have been affected by domestic violence, and will draw upon their own expertise and working practice to complement the taught elements of the programme.

Learning objectives

On completion of this module the participant will:

- Develop an in depth understanding of the way that children are affected when living with domestic violence.
- Understand the main effects that prolonged exposure to domestic violence can have on children.
- Understand the myths and facts relating to children living with domestic violence and the importance of children's safety planning.
